DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group III, claims 11 and 31, and claims 11 and 32 from the species requirement, in the reply filed on April 25, 2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the claims are linking claims the Groups are substantial similar in scope and content. This is not found persuasive because Applicant elected the linking claims and not the apparatus. Thus, the analysis that Applicant supplied is not on point. Also, pursuant to MPEP 806.05 (e), it is the Examiner's position that the linking claim is not patentable. It is noted that elected species claim 32 is directed towards unelected Group IV and will not presently be examined.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

2. Claims 1-10, 12-30 and 31-40 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on April 25, 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

4. The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).
5. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Stewart, US 6,714,964.

Stewart discloses an information processing apparatus for requesting a print order via the Internet, e.g. cols. 5-8.

6. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Matsuyama et al., US 6,886,028.

Matsuyama discloses a print ordering means, e.g. 105, and uploading means, e.g. 104 and input requesting means, e.g. 102, used over the Internet.

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

9. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gotanda et al., US 6,707,570.

Gotanda discloses, e.g. Figs. 16-20, a network, inputting means, e.g. 122-123, uploading means, e.g. 147, and print ordering means, e.g. 204. Gotanda does not disclose the network as the Internet. Official Notice is taken that Internet networks used in a print order environment has been common knowledge in the art prior to Applicant's filing date.

To have provided and Internet network for Gotanda would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for providing such would have been to implement a common knowledge network communication system.

10. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.
11. Applicant's attached Information Disclosure Statement has been briefly reviewed.
